Galway Ghost Tours

Come learn about Galway's ghoulish past from the infamous Spanish
Armada Massacre to the gory history behind the King's Head Pub!

Daily in English, June - August

Ghosts and Guinness in Galway:

The Ghost Tour starts at 8 p.m. every night, June through August. This walking tour lasts for 1 hour and is followed by an optional visit to a local pub for pints and traditional Irish music!

Please Join Us:

The meeting point for all tours is in front of the Galway City Museum, which is located directly behind the famous Spanish Arch. Your guide will be standing in front of the museum holding a green umbrella.

Tickets:

There is no need to book in advance. Tickets are available on the spot from your tour guide, and cost €10 for Adults and €8 for Students.

A portion of the proceeds benefit local charities. Thank you in advance for your contribution!
